CAMP STAFF

Lori Cook:

Cook is entering her fifth season as Head Coach after four years as assistant coach at UTSA. Cook was a member of the 1989-1990 Nebraska softball team before graduating from UTSA in May 2002 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology.

Prior to UTSA she completed an Associate's degree in Behavioral Science at Napa Valley in 1988. Cook's duties with the Roadrunners include working with the pitching staff, infielders, and coordinating recruiting.

Stephanie Hughes:

Hughes, entering her seventh season with the Runners, graduated from Texas State University in 2001 with a Bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sport Science. She played four years at Texas State as an All-Conference outfielder.

Before coming to UTSA, Hughes had coaching stints at Texas State and Navarro College. Her duties with the Roadrunners include working with the outfielders and coordinating travel.

Michelle Cheatham :

Cheatham, the newest member of the coaching staff, was a four-year letterwinner for the Runners from 1999-2002. She was an all-conference catcher who still ranks at the top of many offensive categories here at UTSA, including third on the career homerun list.

Cheatham graduated from UTSA in 2002 with a BBA in Accounting. Cheatham's duties with the Roadrunners include working with the catchers and infielders along with assisting with hitting.
